SECONDARY ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMME

TERM ONE 2021

Subject: Portuguese

Grade Eight

Week Six (6)

Lesson Two Topic: Talking about aches and pains.

In the previous lesson, you would have done parts of the body (as partes do corpo) before. Let us review some of these parts in Portuguese.

AS PARTES DO CORPO

Label the parts of the body in Portuguese.

NB: Do not forget to put in the articles in front of the names.

Everybody feels pain and illness at some time in their lives. How can we express what pain we feel in Portuguese?

We use the verb Estar to say how we are feeling.

Estar com (literally, to be with) is used in the following expressions:

estar com febre	to have a fever
estar com tontura	to be dizzy
estar com tosse	to have a cough
estar doente	to be sick, ill
estar mal	to feel bad
estar resfriado (a)	to have a cold
estar gripado (a)	to have the flu
estar inflamado (a)	to be inflamed

Give the ENGLISH for the following sentences.

1. Não estou me sentindo bem. _____
2. Preciso ir ao médico. _____
3. Onde está a farmácia? _____
4. Estou gripado/a. _____
5. A minha mãe está com dor de cabeça. _____
6. O bebê está com febre. _____
7. Eu comi muitas cerejas e agora estou com dor de garganta.

8. Estou com dor nas costas. _____
9. Estou tossindo. _____
10. Estou espirrando. _____

11. Marco comiu toda a comida e agora ele está com dor de estômago.

12. Estou com dor de barriga. _____

13. Estou nauseado/a. _____

14. Estou com diarreia. _____

15. Sou alérgico/a a camarão. _____

When we feel pain/hurt, we use the verb doer (which is seen in some of the phrases above as ‘dor’).

Look at the images below and write a sentence of the ailment each represents:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____
